

TTOC Advisory Committee

The TTOCAC advises the BCTF Executive on issues pertinent to TTOCs around the province. If you have a concern, ask your TTOC rep or local president to pass it on to us!

Welcome to the BCTF

TTOC concerns

If you have questions about being a TTOC, you can always contact your local TTOC chair, local president, or the BCTF TTOC Advisory Committee.

Induction

An Induction Ceremony is often held to welcome new teachers into the BCTF. It is a special event to honour new teachers, organized by your local union. Ask your local president for more information and be sure to attend your induction!

TTOC Listserve

There are several BCTF email lists you can join including a TTOC email list that allows you to connect with other TTOCs from around the province. Join at <http://bctf.ca/cgi-bin/maillinglistssub.pl>

BCTF members-only portal

There are resources for teachers, and you can apply for a committee or to be a workshop facilitator under Member Opportunities.

Professional Development –

Did you know that there may be funding available for Pro-D for TTOCs in your local? Contact teacherprod@sd71.bc.ca
Contact your Pro-D rep or local president with any questions.

TeachBC

teachbc.bctf.ca/ is a new website full of lesson plans for a single day, or a range of days. If you are called out into a subject area that you are not familiar with, you can check it out for ideas and extra help. You can upload your lessons to share, too!

TTOC workshops

Ask your local president about booking BCTF workshops for TTOCs. There are a variety of topics like: Classroom Management, Reality 101, Work-life Balance and knowing your Collective Agreement, all specifically for TTOCs.

New PSA for BC Early Career Teachers

A new provincial Specialist Association has been created to support the work of early career teachers and TTOCs with special services, resources, networking, and advocacy. Learn more at <https://bcecta.wordpress.com/>
